Meet Steven Frenzel,
Presenter

As a math teacher, Steven noticed that his students left class knowing more about movies than multivariate models. Giving into his true passion, he began doing film presentations—on everything from baseball to musicals to Star Wars—throughout the Chicago area. Over eighteen years later, Steven is still entertaining audiences with his delightful film clips and amusing anecdotes. Witness him in action and catch the enthusiasm!

—Steven and his wife reside in Deerfield, IL
